

BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION

Name: FERERES, Elias (Spain)

Position: Professor of Agronomy, University of Cordoba, and Director, Agency for Quality Assurance and Research Evaluation of Andalusia, Spain

Expertise: Water science and engineering, management and conservation of water in agricultural and natural ecosystems.

Education: B.Sc. and Ph.D. in Agricultural Engineering (Universidad Politecnica de Madrid, 1969 and 1977); M.Sc. in Irrigation (1974) and Ph.D. in Ecology (1976), University of California, Davis.

Experience: 1976-82: Irrigation Specialist and Lecturer, Department of Land, Air and Water Resources, University of California, Davis. 1983-1989: Several positions in science management in the National Research Commission of Spain (CICYT). 1991-1992: President of Spain's High Council of Scientific Research (CSIC). 1992-1994: Secretary of State for Universities and Research, Government of Spain. 1995-2000: Director, Institute of Sustainable Agriculture (CSIC), Cordoba. President of the Royal Academy of Engineering of Spain (1995-2003), and President of the European Society for Agronomy (ESA) (2000-2002). Member of the Academia Europaea. Former TAC-CGIAR member (1998-2003). Has consulted for many national and international organizations, including FAO, UNESCO, EU, and USAID on various aspects of water and agriculture. Author of over 180 refereed, international publications and book chapters on crop responses to water deficits, adaptation to drought, irrigation management, soil and water conservation, and management of rainfed farming systems.